

Connector

The connectors are used to transmit power and light signals. One end of the connector must connect to the outer slot while other end must connect to the inner slot.

Fixator

The fixators provide fixation for more Cololights in large piece but can't transmit power and light signals. Two ends of the fixator must connect to the outer slot.

